

LEXINGTON INSURANCE

CHARTIS

New York City Medical Professional Liability Underwriter

What You Will Be Doing:

As an Underwriter, you will be responsible for evaluating, marketing & growing medical malpractice liability coverages for new business while managing an existing book of business from assigned brokers.

What You Need:

You should have a minimum of 3 years casualty underwriting experience preferably with medical malpractice coverages. Experience with loss rating is helpful. Must be dependable, have strong marketing skills and a proven success in a production-oriented environment. Excellent communication and organization skills required.

Please forward resume for consideration to: Ginger Schultz, Lexington Insurance –
Healthcare Division –New York Regional Manager ginger.schultz@chartisinsurance.com

5/3/2010